Neil S. Ende Named to List of Top Rated Attorneys

Washington, DC. , July 31, 2012: Technology Law Group (www.tlgdc.com) is pleased to announce that its Managing Partner, Neil S. Ende, has been named to the 2012 List of Top Rated Attorneys in the Washington, DC area. This list, which is compiled by The National Law Journal and The American Lawyer in cooperation with Martindale Hubbell, is based on ratings provided by members of the judiciary and peer attorneys in the bar. Only attorneys who are rated "A/V" by Martindale Hubbell can be included on the List of Top Rated Attorneys.

The Martindale Hubbell A/V rating is offered to attorneys who have reached the "highest level of professional excellence" (the "A" in "A/V") as well as the "highest possible rating for legal ethics" (the "V" in "A/V"). Mr. Ende has held this unique honor every year for well more than a decade. Mr. Ende's law firm, Technology Law Group is also a member of the Bar Register of Preeminent Attorneys in each of its principal practice areas. Membership in the Bar Register is limited to law firms who members have received an A/V rating in each of its practice areas.

In commenting on being named to List, Mr. Ende said, "I am particularly honored to be included in this List because it is based on ratings by my peers in the bar and members of the judiciary. I am also very proud that, to my knowledge, Technology Law Group is the only law firm serving the telecom channel that has received each of these accolades." Mr. Ende commented further that "we believe that this honor is a reflection of the comprehensive, aggressive and creative legal services offered by Technology Law Group that enable our clients to achieve their business objectives."
